

10

The diagram shows a parabolic shape opening upwards, centered on a vertical axis. A horizontal line passes through the center of the parabola. The number '10' is positioned in the upper left quadrant of the diagram. The parabola is defined by two closely spaced curves, and the area between them is shaded light blue. The top of the diagram features a series of horizontal and vertical lines forming a stepped or stepped-like structure.